

Activity Report of Debate Competition held on the occasion of 56th Foundation Day Celebration of Netaji Nagar Group of Colleges

On the occasion of the 56th Foundation Day Celebration of Netaji Nagar Group of Colleges, Netaji Nagar Day College organised an Inter-college Debate Competition on the topic entitled “75 years of Indian Independence: A Journey of Glory and Pride” on 22nd September 2022, from 1:30 pm. at the college premises. The primary objective of this debate was to encourage the students of Netaji Nagar Group of Colleges to express their opinions about topics of social relevance and to help them overcome their fear of public speaking.

The two eminent judges of the event were Prof. Dr Manoranjan Biswas, member, Governing Body of Netaji Nagar Day College and Dr Parimal Bhattacharyya, Principal, Gayatri Chetna Foundation, a unit of George Group of Colleges.

There were two groups of participants from each of the three colleges, a total of six groups, each comprising of two participants, one for the motion and one against it. Gitasree Dhar secured first position and Shreya Das stood second, both from Netaji Nagar College for Women. Tanmoy Adhikary and Biswarup Ghosh jointly stood third from Netaji Nagar Day College and Netaji Nagar College respectively. Netaji Nagar College for Women bagged the prize in the category of best college.

The entire event was sponsored by Dr Manoranjan Biswas Endowment Fund. Netaji Nagar Day College aspires to continue with this annual event on the occasion of the Foundation Day Celebration of Netaji Nagar Group of Colleges in the years to come.
